getting one hit out of five trips to the bat, and accepting his six chances without an error. "Cinci" won 10 to 8.

Vaughn, Princeton's star second baseman for the past two seasons is with the Yankees. It is stated that he will get $4.800 a year.

To-night is Baseball Night at Poli's in Hartford and the Senators and Northamptons who play in that town to-day will be the guests of the theatre management. There will be moving pictures of the Detroit-Chicago world championship game of last season, and Manager Connery of Hartford will sing "Let's Get the Umpire's Goat." A hypnotist will be present and will act over Umpire Murray in an attempt to wring from that individual the name of the player who slugged him at Waterbury. Murray says that he is not sure now that Schincel hit him.

The New Britain Cubebs will make their second appearance of the season here on Friday. They have been considerably strengthened since their last appearance here, the Cubans having joined them.

YOUNG CORBETT, "BILL" BROWN AND JIM GARDNER WIN THEIR BATTLES

In the last seconds of the final round have resulted in a fatality.

The lads fought evenly up to the termination of the scheduled ten-round of a fifteen-round fight with Young Corbett, in Baltimore last night Harry Scrogs was saved by the bell and Corbett was forced to content himself with the decision. Scrogs made a good showing at long range fighting during several rounds, but fared badly at close quarters and appeared to make little effort to keep Corbett away. The latter showed scarcely a mark at the finish, while the right side of Scroggs face was in very bad shape. In the third round Scroggs had the better of argument, and Corbett's handlers were only restrained by the police from jumping into the ring.

Referee Bill Brown saved Dan Savage from a knockout at the hands of Charlie Seiger in New York last night. Brown stopped the contest in the sixth round, when Savage was sent to the point of the jaw. Sevage was sent to the point of the jaw. Sevage was slowly rising to his knees when Brown waved Seiger to his corner, Savage was plainly beaten and another blow might Corbett, in Baltimore last night Har-

New York, May 12.—That it is not yet time for boxing promotors in New York to be careless in the observance of the bona fide "club law" was proven last night when a dozen plain clothes men raided the Longacre Athletic Association, stopped the preliminary bout between Young David and Joe Marino and arrested six men connected with the "club." The raid was the result, it is claimed by the detectives, of the sale of tickets to the bout in the Wall Street district in violation of the club

(Special from United Press.) San Francisco, May 12.-Battling Lorain, O., May 12.—At the rate Tommy Kilbane and "Biz" Mackay were going when they fought a tear round draw here last night they could have continued two more rounds without inflicting much damage. Kilbane was more aggressive but Mackay's punch made things interesting. Only about eight effective blows were landed during the entire bout.

Chicago, May 12.—At is rumored in ball circles today that George Brown, former outfielder of the Cubs, may play with the Washington Americans during the coming season. Brown was in conference with Manager Cantillical late yesterday and the impression has found that he cannot "bluff" Promoter James Coffroth. Following a meeting of the two yesterday Coffroth said to-day that he was making other arrangements for July 5, the date on which Nelson and McFarland were matched to fight in the Colma arena.

Coffroth promises to give the fight fans a good match, intimating that on that date Stanley Ketchell may fight the winner of the Papke-Kelly bout. Many here believe that Coffroth by his firmness with Nelson, has set the Dane thinking and that the Nelson-McFarland fight will be pulled off on that date according to several and fight will be pulled off on that

The Co for the Orators yesterday at Newfield up to the standard he set last season, Springfield walloping him hard, and winning the game, 9-3. Arthur lasted till the eighth, when Burns sent him to the stables with a welt on the Ponies, who collided with his slants for four hits. Young "Jum" Warner was on the rubber for the Ponies, performing in good style. Jum looks like a kid, there not being even a semblance of a bit of dust on his upper lip. Collins, the snappy second sacker for the Ponies was the real candy kid with the willow, getting three hits, one good for a homer, another for a three sacker, and the last a terrific slash at Marty Phelan. Collins' first hit was a welt way into left center, which made Hi Ladd travel, Hilt received the sphere from Ladd and relaying it home caught Collins at the plate trying to stretch the hit for the four stations. Collins' next attempt was still better, as the ball hit the fence in left center. Bannon chased it but could not get it back to the diamond in time to get Collins who had completed the circuit. Romer fanned the second baseman on his third appearance at the bat, much to the satisfaction of the crowd.

Romer in the first passed Maggert. Connor was safe on Miller's error. Waite sent both men along on a sacrifice. Romer filled the stations when he passed Rising. Luby sent two men across the plate with a fine hit to conter, Barbour struck out, and then Collins hit into left center for three bags, scoring Rising and Luby. "Pop" Rising robbéd Hilt of a three bagger in the Orator's half of the opener on a catch which almost knocked him down. Bourquin got a two bagger in the third, but was left at that station. The visitors added another in the fourth on Collins' homer. Ladd's pass and Bourquin's second hit put two on bases in the fourth but there was nothing doing.

In Waterbury to-day.

Artle Romer had better wait till the warmer days show up before he goes into the box again. Arthur has shown that he has nothing on the ball that will be given a try out. The warmer days show up before he goes into the box again. Arthur has shown that he has nothing on the ball that will fool the batsmen. By the way, it is staied that Art was married only a few months ago.

Holyoke has signed a young man named Barnacle to pitch. He is a Dean College graduate and was with for a single and Romer dropped one along the third base line which Bar-bour did not touch thinking it would roll foul. There were three on with none down but Miller struck out, and Bangon went out on a fly to Barbour. It looked likel a sure shut out for the Orators up to the ninth, when a series of hits, a pass and an error netted three runs. Bourquin got on the bags for a fourth time during the game, when Burns fumbled his grounder. Jameson who relieved Kocher went out Collins to Luby, Steinhauser wa'ked. McKenna was sent in to bat for Gibbs and placed the ball into center for a and placed the ball into center for a game but for errors by Doyle and clean single, scoring Bourquin. Miller went out short to first, but Bannon followed with a single into left on which Steinhouser scored. Hilt knocked a slow one at Burns and beat the throw to first, McKenna scoring. Ladd ended the inning pitch to first. The score:
